

FERNANDO KESUMA

Architectural Engineering

ABOUT ME

I'm an enthusiastic architect, who enjoys being part of leading, successful and productive team. I'm quick to grasp new ideas and concepts, and to develop creative solutions to problems. I have excellent skills in the field of art and architecture and I'm able to work hard and well on my own initiative. Even under significant pressure and stress, I possess a strong ability to perform effectively.

OBJECTIVE

Seeking a position in a professional architectural environment or another suitable position available referring to my educational background in engineering where I may contribute my skills, training, professional commitment and positive work ethic, to a company offering the opportunity for growth and advancement.
