Fulltime

Freelance

Paid Project

The following is the result of my work while working full time, freelance or paid projects. I mostly create designs for social media for clients, often create content for Instagram, and also create designs for their email designs. I learned a lot from this job, one of which is how to do layouting, digital imaging, creative thinking and also working in a team

all images other than this are made for a month plan which must be uploaded on the client's Instagram, made in such a way as to adjust the color elements of the product, the client is named @talismandesigns

all images other than this are made for a month plan which must be uploaded on the client's Instagram, made in such a way using the column alignment technique, the client is named @solvaderm

MOTION PROJECT

Here is the result of my work while working full time. freelance or paid projects. I mostly make designs for social media then animate those designs for clients, often create content for Instagram, and also make animated videos for tiktok as well as youtube. I learned a lot from this job, one of which is how to do layouting, digital imaging, creative thinking, and after all that is combined, how we move it all.

Here are some snippets from videos that I have made and all videos the result of cooperation from several clients who have worked with me, not only making designs but also making animations from these designs. clients I have worked with include @theregards, @nitrackers, @smanitracup, @malliaperfume, and @daxkollektif, etc If you want to see more videos, you can visit my portfolio site at <https://putrailhamsyah1004.wixsite.com/website> Or you can simply scan the barcode below

VIDEO EDITING

Here is the result of my work while working full-time, freelance, or paid projects. I mostly make recap videos or after party events and also produce videos for launching new products for clients, often create content for Instagram, and also make videos for TikTok and also youtube. I learned a lot from this job: how to take video footage, color grading, and creative thinking.

The following are some snippets from videos that I have made and all videos are the result of collaboration from several events, not only editing but I also take part in taking scenes in several videos. clients who have collaborated with me are @royalbrewhousewhisky, @nitrackers, @smanitracup, @thefoundry, and also @yrproduction. If you want to see a more complete video, you can visit my portfolio website at <https://putrailhamsyah1004.wixsite.com/website> or you can directly scan the barcode below

PHOTOGRAPHY

The following are some of my camera shots, not very professional but I can use the camera but in the end I still edited the color tone of the captured image to be better than the original. I have participated in product photography in the studio and also photography at
